StratejiCo.

A Successful Labor Transformation

[GREIF FPS] abolished the subcontractor system with the goal of creating an engaged and productive workforce. StratejiCo. advised GREIF management to ensure participation and contribution of its employees and the union into the transformation process. The transformed labor model enabled the company to take steps to provide its customers with high quality products at lower costs.

Click here for more information in Turkish