Emre Do■ru Wins Bosphorus Energy Club Award

[Emre Do■ru], the managing partner of StratejiCo., has won the first place in the competition organized by Bosphorus Energy Club's Young Leaders in Energy Program. Do■ru attended the Young Leaders in Energy Conference on December 9 and received his award from Bosphorus Energy Club chairman Mehmet Ö■ütçü and partner of PriceWaterhouseCoopers Murat Çolako■lu. The next day, he participated in the exclusive gathering of Bosphorus Energy Club in Sait Halim Pa■a Palace to present his paper to a distinguished audience composed of public and private sector leaders. Do■ru proposed "A multi-layer decision-making model and Turkey's choices" while discussing whether geopolitical confrontation or collaboration will prevail in the future energy projects.

The Bosphorus Energy Club is an exclusive membership-only gathering of the key shakers and movers in the energy and geopolitical world of Eurasia, the MENA, the Gulf, and Southeast Europe. It serves as a Track-II energy diplomacy channel as well as a discreet but powerful summit of the top decision-makers for regional issues and projects.
